Caverion Sweden has acquired Eskilstuna EI-Tjänst AB with two employees and annual sales of about SEK 10 million through an acquisition of assets.

Eskilstuna EI-Tjänst was founded in 2021 and offers electrical services and smaller-scale electrical contracting services, mainly in the cities of Eskilstuna and Strängnäs and their environs. Services include troubleshooting, repairs and new installation, as well as some control and fine-tuning services. Customers include local property and industrial companies and other installation companies.

“One of our strengths is to perform property services and technical management with our own resources, and by the acquisition of Eskilstuna EI-Tjänst we strengthen our electrical competence in and around Eskilstuna. We are very pleased with this acquisition and with being able to welcome new employees and customers,” says Anders Fagerkrantz, CEO of Caverion Sverige AB.

The customer base comprises construction companies, property companies, industrial operations and public-sector clients.

“As part of Caverion, we will be able to grow and build something bigger. In our discussions, I have come to know Caverion as an ambitious and highly professional company, and we share the same view on key issues, such as quality and business acumen, which are crucial for a good partnership,” says Staffan Wallin, President of Eskilstuna EI-Tjänst.
